

Enthusiastic and innovative music makers are sought for Beacon on the Road, Beacon Arts Centre's Festive Community Tour

Are you an innovative MUSIC MAKER?

Do you want to inspire the next generation?

Are you the person we need to take our programme out to the community here in Inverclyde?

We are looking for a musical artist to join our team to bring together young people in a series of music workshops, with a final session at Beacon Art Centre. You will have an understanding of emerging youth music scene in Scotland including festivals, social media sharing platforms and events.

We are open to all ideas and suggestions, in particular hip hop, electronic; anything that will grab the interests of the 12- to 18-year-old age group.

This is about them and what will excite and inspire them.

- The workshops will be between Monday 29 November and Wednesday 22 December.
- These sessions will be offered to young people at locations throughout Inverclyde.
- Ideally, the musical artist/s will have at least one year of experience working and delivering workshops with young people.
- Qualifications in your art form are desired but not necessary - candidates experience will be taken into consideration.
- All candidates must be an existing member or willing to become a member of the Protection of Vulnerable Groups Scheme.

Payment: £200 per day including preparation.
