Do you identify as Neurodivergent? Are you a disabled young person? Are you interested in the arts? Then Beacon Arts Centre needs you!

We are looking for young ambassadors age 12-21 to be part of our Creatability programme at Beacon Arts Centre. It will cover four creative art forms:

- Creatability: Youth Theatre
- Creatability: Music Makers
- Creatability: Visual Artists
- Creatability: Aerial Dance

The project will be largely young-person led with participants being given the opportunity to inform what is explored through each art form. Our Young Ambassadors will be the driving force behind these decisions. They will help inform everything from creative decisions to practical solutions. Young Ambassadors will be expected to attend the Creatability classes (in their chosen art form) and one monthly meeting. This is a voluntary position.

Creatability is about giving a safe and creative environment for young people's voices to be heard.

If you are interested in being one of our Young Ambassadors please send a short paragraph, video or voice recording about why you want to be part of this project to ZoeH@beaconartscentre.co.uk.

If you would like to apply in another way or have any access requirements, please get in touch with Zoe, our Creatability Project Co-ordinator at ZoeH@beaconartscentre.co.uk or call 01475 723723 and let us know how we can accommodate you.

This project is funded by Creative Scotland's Youth Arts Fund in collaboration with Beacon Arts.
